

THREE ACCUSED IN GRADE CRASH FATAL TO NINE

Two More Junkyard Fires Lead to Owner's Arrest—Public
Funerals To-Morrow.

Charges of manslaughter will be presented to-day to the Grand Jury at New Brunswick against Theodore F. Brown, engineer, and William Ridgeway, conductor of the express train which collided with a fire truck at Perth Amboy Wednesday, and Andrew Thomas, flagman at the Market Street crossing, who is still in the City Hospital at Perth Amboy with a broken leg. Prosecutor Joseph M. Stricker of Middlesex County said witnesses will be questioned.

Meanwhile, all trains are crawling about at a snail's pace through crepe-bruised Perth Amboy and, day and night, policemen stand at the more important crossings with red flags and red lanterns. The Grand Jury to-day is expected to hand up a presentment condemning grade crossings throughout Middlesex County. City Attorney Leo Goldberger of Perth Amboy, went to Trenton yesterday to make definite demands upon the State Public Utility Commission regarding grade crossings throughout New Jersey.

The ninth victim to die was Victor Janderup, thirty-two, of No. 240 South Second Street, who had a fractured lung, broken leg and other injuries. He was married.

E. T. Johnston of No. 330 Market Street, Perth Amboy, is still in a critical condition in the hospital where Thomas, the only other remaining victim is recovering. Johnston's face is terribly lacerated; his ribs are broken and his ear is almost torn off.

At 4:50 o'clock yesterday afternoon a fire started in the same junkyard to which the chemical truck was rushing Wednesday, when it crashed into the engine of the express train. This was the fourth fire in the junkyard, which is owned by A. Ruderman, since last Sunday. The yard is on South Second Street, near Paterson Street. Ruderman was arrested after the blaze was extinguished. He was charged with disorderly conduct and was held without bail for examination this morning.

About eight members of the Eagle Company ran to the blaze and aided the Lincoln Fire Company, a paid organization, to put it out. After the first blaze was extinguished the firemen left and another blaze started in another part of the yard. Some of the firemen claim they saw Ruderman coming from the spot where the second blaze started. His arrest was made upon complaint of the Fire Wardens.

In view of the fact that almost all of the firemen killed in the accident had families, a relief fund was started by subscription in Perth Amboy yesterday and about $800 was subscribed in a short while. Mayor William C. Wilson headed the fund with a donation of $250.

It is generally accepted that the flagman waved at the automobiles and the fire truck, when he should either have flagged down the express or lowered his gates, which were in good order.

To-morrow, when a public funeral will be held for the firemen killed in the accident, business in Perth Amboy will cease and there will be no social affairs from then until Monday. Arrangements are under way to have services for all the victims at the same place.
